

Alfa Laval Malaysia Sdn Bhd (8682-H)

Alfa Laval is a Swedish company that has over 130 years of history and has been present in Malaysia since 1969. Its three key technologies are heat transfer, solution separation and fluid handling, with key customers found in various process industries such as vegetable oil, food, waste water treatment, chemical, oil & gas, pulp & paper, marine and power – just to mention a few. Alfa Laval holds leading global market positions within its fields of technical expertise.

Alfa Laval Malaysia is part of Alfa Laval Southeast Asia, where 5 branch offices, 10 service centres, and 1 distribution centre spread across the region, making it possible to stay very close to customers and react rapidly to their business needs. In Malaysia, its main sales office is located in Shah Alam, while the two branch offices are in Bintulu and Sandakan, and one more satellite office in Kluang. In Alfa Laval, service is not an after-thought, but highly prioritized to ensure customers are well supported from supplying the smallest spare part to being a lifetime performance partner.

Products/ Services

Alfa Laval has for many decades provided the technologies, experience and engineering capabilities that enable players in the palm and vegetable oil industry to operate their key processes at maximum efficiency with best product yield and minimum environmental impact.
